CONSTITUTION

1. NAME

- 1.1. The name of this committee shall be Edgewood Elementary Parent Advisory Committee
“EWPAC”

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1. To promote the education and welfare of students in the school.
- 2.2. To encourage parent involvement in the school, and to support programs that promote parent involvement.
- 2.3. To advise the school board, principal, and staff on any matter relating to the school, other than matters assigned to the school planning council.
- 2.4. To participate in the work of the School Planning Council through the Council’s elected representatives.
- 2.5. To promote the interests of public education and, in particular, the interests of Edgewood Elementary School.
- 2.6. To provide leadership in the school community.
- 2.7. To contribute to a sense of community within the school and between the school, home, and neighbourhood.
- 2.8. To provide parent education and professional development, and a forum for discussion of educational issues.
- 2.9. To assist parents in obtaining information and communicating with the principal and staff about their child’s progress or other concerns.
- 2.10. To assist the principal and staff in ensuring the highest safety standards are maintained in the school and neighbourhood.
- 2.11. To organize and support activities for students and parents.
- 2.12. To provide financial support for the goals of the Parent Advisory Committee, as determined by the membership.
- 2.13. To advise and participate in the activities of School District 36, District Parent Advisory Council and the BC Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils.

3. INTERPRETATION OF TERMS

“community organizations” means the groups that demonstrate an interest in education and are not already included the scope of the Edgewood Elementary Parent Advisory Committee’s constitution and bylaws.

“district” means School District No. 36.

“DPAC” or “District Parent Advisory Council” means the parent advisory councils organized according to the School Act and operating as a district parent advisory council in School District No. 36.

“school” means any public elementary or secondary educational institute as defined in the School Act.

“SPC” means the school planning council created for Edgewood Elementary according to the School Act.

B.

BYLAWS

1. MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1. All parents and guardians of students registered in Edgewood Elementary School are voting members of the Edgewood Elementary Parent Advisory Committee.
- 1.2. Every member will uphold the constitution and comply with these bylaws.

2. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

- 2.1. General meetings will be conducted with fairness to all members.
- 2.2. General meetings will be held not less than four times during the school year. One of those meetings will be the annual general meeting to be held in June.
- 2.3. At general meetings, members will not discuss individual school personnel, students, parents, or other members of the school community.
- 2.4. The EWPAC will refrain from partisan political action or other activities that do not serve the interests of the school or the public school system.
- 2.5. Notice of general meetings will be communicated through the school newsletter and a direct email to parents with a minimum of 2 weeks notice.

3. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 3.1. Meetings may be held in person or by electronic means such as internet video based conference platforms.
- 3.2. Quorum for general meetings will be 5 voting members.
- 3.3. If at any time during a general meeting a quorum ceases to be present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.
- 3.4. All matters that require a vote will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast.
- 3.5. In the case of a tie vote the president does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.
- 3.6. A motion that has been defeated shall not be reconsidered within the same school year unless two-thirds of the voting members approve a motion that “the question be reconsidered.” This motion to reconsider shall not be debatable and shall call for an immediate vote.
 - 3.6.1. A previously defeated motion that has been reconsidered and defeated, shall not be further considered in the same school year.
- 3.7. Members must vote on all matters either in person or present in a meeting held electronically.
- 3.8. Voting by proxy will not be permitted.
- 3.9. Except as provided elsewhere in these bylaws, voting is by a show of hands or, if requested by two or more members present, by secret ballot.
- 3.10. A vote will be taken to destroy the ballots after every election or secret ballot vote.

4. EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

- 4.1. A board of elected officers will manage the Committee's affairs between general meetings.
- 4.2. The executive officers will include the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, fundraising coordinator, DPAC Representative and such other members of the Committee as the membership decides. In any year, up to three persons may share the fundraising coordinator position duties. Each person serving as a fundraising coordinator shall be considered an executive member.
- 4.3. Any voting committee member is eligible to serve on the executive, except employees of Edgewood Elementary.
- 4.4. The executive officers will be elected at each annual general meeting.
- 4.5. Elections will be conducted by a member who is not seeking a nomination or position. In absence of an eligible member the vote will be turned over to an administrator to conduct.

- 4.6. No two members of the same family may serve on the executive at the same time.
- 4.7. The executive officers will hold office for a term of one year beginning July 1st, in accordance with the fiscal year. The outgoing executive officers may provide transitional support for a period of time agreed upon by the incoming executive officers.
- 4.8. If an executive officer resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the remaining executive officers may appoint an eligible member of the Committee to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.
- 4.9. The members may, by a majority of not less than 75% of the votes cast, remove an executive officer before the expiration of his or her term of office, and elect an eligible member to complete the term. Prior to this vote, written notice specifying the intention to make a motion to remove an executive officer must be given to all members not less than 14 days before the vote.
- 4.10. No executive officer may be remunerated for serving on the executive, but may be reimbursed for expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred while engaged in the Committee's affairs.

5. EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

- 5.1. Executive meetings will be held at the call of the president. At least one meeting will be held before the annual general meeting.
- 5.2. A quorum for executive meetings will be a majority of the executive officers.
- 5.3. Executive officers will be given reasonable notice of executive meetings.
- 5.4. All matters requiring a vote at executive meetings will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast from each executive role. Where the fundraising coordinator role is being shared by more than one executive member, the fundraising coordinator role remains entitled to only one vote. In case of a tie vote, the president does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.

6. SCHOOL PLANNING COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

- 6.1. Three representatives to the School Planning Council (SPC) must be elected annually from among the voting members who are not employees or elected officials of any school board or the Ministry of Education. One of these members must be an elected member of the Committee executive.
- 6.2. The election of representatives for the School Planning Council may be done by secret ballot.
- 6.3. The School Planning Council representative will hold office for a term of one year in accordance with the fiscal year.
- 6.4. If a School Planning Council representative resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the membership may elect an eligible member to the council to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. Such election may be done by secret ballot.

7. DISTRICT PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

- 7.1. One representative to the School District No. 36 District Parent Advisory Council may be elected from the voting members.
- 7.2. The District Parent Advisory Council representative will hold office for a term of one year in accordance with the fiscal year.
- 7.3. If the District Parent Advisory Council representative resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the membership may elect an eligible member to the council to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

8. EXTERNAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVES

- 8.1. The membership or executive may elect or appoint a member to represent the Committee on an external committee or to an external organization.

9. CONDUCT OF EXECUTIVE AND REPRESENTATIVES

- 9.1. On election or appointment, every executive officer and representative must agree to, and abide by, a code of ethics acceptable to the membership. See APPENDIX A.
- 9.2. Every executive officer and representative must act solely in the interests of the membership and of the Committee.

- 9.3. Any information received in confidence by an executive officer or representative from school personnel, a student, parent, or other member of the school community is privileged and must not be divulged without the permission of the person giving that information.
- 9.4. An executive officer or representative who is interested, either directly or indirectly, in a proposed contract or transaction with the Committee must disclose fully and promptly the nature and extent of his or her interests to the membership and executive.

APPENDIX “A”

ADMINISTRATION OF THE CODE OF ETHICS

The following is a process for dealing with a concern that an executive officer, committee member, or representative may have failed to observe the Code of Ethics. The process is intended to deal with complaints in a positive manner and to facilitate a fair resolution, agreeable to all parties. Any person bringing forward a concern will be advised of this process.

1. All complaints and information surrounding complaints will be dealt with in confidence.
2. Those directly involved in the complaint will be given access to all relevant information.
3. All parties will be dealt with respectfully.
4. Any person involved may have a support person.
5. There will be a fair review of the concern to protect volunteers, executive officers, and representatives from harassing, frivolous or vexations claims.

PROCESS

1. All complaints, verbal and written, will be received by the president. The president may appoint another executive officer to act as chairperson for the specific purpose of administering the Code of Ethics. In the event the complaint relates to the president, the complainant will be directed to the vice-president. If the president and vice-president are involved, any executive officer may receive the complaint.
2. For the purpose of this process, the person acting on the complaint is named the chairperson.
3. Upon receiving the complaint, the chairperson will work to clarify the complaint, determine if and how the Code of Ethics has been breached, and facilitate the complaints process. The chairperson is responsible for keeping complete notes of the process. These notes should include names of all involved, details of all meetings, and the specifics of any resolutions.
4. Every attempt will be made to resolve the concern in a timely manner.
5. As a first step, the person bringing forward the complaint will be encouraged to inform the person in question of their concern and to discuss the problem with the intent of reaching a resolution.
6. If a resolution is not reached between the parties, the chairperson will mediate a discussion, with the intent of facilitating a positive resolution.
7. The chairperson may request the participation of other executive officers in the process.

8. If the parties cannot agree on a resolution, the chairperson will make a recommendation to the parties. The chairperson may recommend that the matter be closed.
9. Either party may appeal the decision of the chairperson. The appeal must be in writing to the council executive within 30 days of being notified of the decision.

Dealing with these types of circumstances is difficult. Individuals can seek help from their DPAC, local DPAC Advocacy Project, BCCPAC, or the BCCPAC Advocacy Project.
